

An introduction to Draken Film

Draken Film is:

- Göteborg Film Festival's streaming platform, developed out of the festival's mission to provide the audience with high quality films from all over the world
- A curated selection combining the films with personal guidance and editorial material, to create an inspiring experience
- Building on 40 years of film festival history
- A subscription service (SVoD), looking for non-exclusive rights
- Available in Sweden
- Live since September 2014

Draken Film has:

- A unique selection of 200 titles (March 2015)
- A release plan of at least 4 new titles/week plus weekly editorial features including interviews, travelogues, podcasts, videos and recommendations
- Over 60 countries represented from all continents (March 2015)
- Established partnerships with a wide range of distributors and sales agents all over the world, such as Le Pacte, Wide, Films Distribution, FiGa Films, Piafilms, M-Appeal, NonStop
- A unique position in its market niche, being the only curated SVoD in Sweden with a profile of high quality, independent films from all over the world

Going forward:

- Building on Göteborg Film Festival's existing community of 30'000 annual visitors
- Branching out from the regional festival audience to a national audience
- Developing Apps and additional customer features
- Geographical expansion throughout Scandinavia

Mellan väggarna, den senare Guldpalmsvinnare i Cannes 2008. År 2004 regidebuterade han med långfilmen Les revenants som sedan blev grunden till tv-serien Gengångare som visats i Sverige.

Trots överraskningar i händelseförloppet, behåller Eastern Boys trovärdigheten hela vägen, inte minst tack vare de skickliga skådespelarna: Kirill Emelyanov som Marek, Daniil Vorobyov som Boss och Olivier Rabourdin, som bland annat spelar en av munkarna i Gudar och mäniskor, som Daniel.

Far from casting judgment on the situation of illegal immigrants, or from being a reflection on paternity, this film first and foremost follows the logic of its fictional narrative. It portrays characters living clandestinely who represent both a danger and a promise for one another. Much like Daniel who, when faced with these young men from the East, oscillates between fear and desire, the film threads its way through ambiguous feelings, borderline, indeed marginal situations, but also, I do hope, through moments of pure jubilation.
